Heat Wave Hits Tri-Town

By Anne Kakley

The annual July heat wave arrived on schedule last week, when the Tri-Town saw temperatures top out at 103 degrees on July 22. The National Weather Service issued an excessive heat watch to southeastern Massachusetts, including southern Plymouth County during that time period.

The heat wave, which spanned from July 21 to 23, was a boost for area businesses, who advertised air conditioning to weather-weary shoppers. Meanwhile, Tri-Town beaches were staffed with plenty of lifeguards to handle the influx of swimmers escaping the heat in the

On the Cover: Tri-Town beaches were packed with residents looking to escape the heat during record high temperatures on July 22, 2011. According to individual reports, the mercury hit 103 in Mattapoisett mid-day. The Mattapoisett COA and library saw a slight influx of people seeking air conditioning as well. Photos by Felix Perez.

In Marion, Silvershell Beach's hours were extended to 7:00 pm so residents could continue to escape the heat until the sun went down. "On Thursday, Friday and Saturday, we had extra lifeguards and they stayed until 7:00 pm instead of their usual 5:00 pm," said Marion Recreation Director Jodie Dickerson. "In general, we've been extremely busy at Silvershell Beach this summer, but there was a particular increase [during the heat wave]."

In other parts of town, facilities were made available to elderly residents, who were at higher risk for medical emergencies during heat waves. The Mattapoisett Council on Aging (COA) conducted an outreach, calling seniors who they considered at risk for heat-related emergencies. But according to COA director Vanessa Williams, the turn-out was troubling.

"Not many elders turned out," Ms. Williams said. "It was a concern to me. A lot of time elders are so hot in their homes, they don't have the motivation to come... We give home visits and I ask if they have air conditioning. It's surprising how many elders don't have one room with air conditioning. I think they've gone so long without air conditioning that they see it as a luxury, not a necessity."

In addition to air conditioning being available at the COA and the town libraries, the Southeastern Massachusetts Transit Authority (SRTA) made bus fare free during the heat wave so residents could beat the heat in the cooled buses.

During the height of the heat on Friday, the Tri-Town fire departments were busy responding to false fire alarms, likely associated with the heat. The Marion fire department responded to a heat-related false alarm at Tabor Academy on Friday, and likewise, Mattapoisett fire responded to a heat-triggered fire alarm at the Highway Department barn that same day.

"We had nine ambulance runs," said Mattapoisett Police Chief Mary Lyons. "That's a little high for us, and some of those runs were heat-related."

Although triple-digit weather is not predicted for the upcoming weekend, the National Weather Service indicates that temperatures will once again approach 90 degrees.

Business and Ice Cream for RHS

Rochester Historical Society

By Anne Smith

The pews of the East Rochester Church were filled on Wednesday, July 20, with around forty residents and the members of the Rochester Historical Society, who sat in the stifling heat for a short business meeting, followed by the entertainment that four local gospel singers provided. The music, which was a mixture of "oldies" and contemporary Christian songs, certainly helped the crowd to beat the heat in the church-turned-museum for the better part of an hour. Following the entertainment, the Rochester Historical Society and their guests from the community gathered in the (much cooler) basement of the church, where multiple flavors of ice cream were served with various toppings, and long-time friends socialized. This Ice Cream Social, which has been a Rochester Historical Society event for several years now, was once again an enjoyable evening for the Society members and guests alike.

Tom and Sheila Perry, two of the four gospel singers, have been performing at the Ice Cream Social for about the last four or five years. "[The Rochester Historical Society] called us to come and sing," Ms. Perry said about how she and her husband got involved in the Social. Ms. Perry explained that this year, she and her husband were joined by their friend and third member of their trio, Carol-Ann Silvia, and Mr. Perry's brother, John Perry. "We usually mix it up for the Ice Cream Social... It's not just gospel," Ms. Perry said about their song choices for the evening.

In the first portion of the concert, the Rochester Historical Society was treated to familiar tunes such as "What a Wonderful World," "Old Cape Cod," "The Rose," "You Belong to Me," and "Crazy." The Rochester Historical Society was also treated to a 1950s-style and a cappella gospel song of Ms. Perry's creation, called "If You Hear His Voice." Mr. Perry explained that they didn't usually perform this song, since it requires a bass, but luckily "we have my brother Tom with us [because] we asked him to help us out."

Ms. Perry, Mr. Perry, and Ms. Silvia have been singing as a trio since 1998, Mr. Perry said, although Ms. Perry believed them to be singing together for the past decade. "We have always liked creating harmonies," Ms. Perry said. They do not limit their musical talents to performing as just a trio, though. Mr. Perry is the pastor for the Grace Lighthouse Fellowship in East Wareham, and Ms. Perry plays the piano for the congregation. "We also have an old fashioned hymn group, so we sing with that," Ms. Perry said.

At the end of their performance, the four singers announced that they had some CDs available for sale at the back of the church "if you want to take some music home with you" – the trio had two albums, and Mr. John Perry had a few solo ones as well.

In the business end of the evening, the Rochester Historical Society finalized its plans for the Family Fun Day, which is taking the place of the Rochester Country Fair this year. The Society agreed to appear at the Family Fun Day, where it hopes to sell its traditional baked goods. However, the Society decided that it would not be selling chances like it usually does, as the Family Fun Day is much shorter than the Rochester Country Fair. The Society also spent time discussing its new computer, which the members plan to use with the digital scanner they already own to preserve all of their historical papers.

The crowd moved downstairs to the kitchen and eating area at 7:45 pm with one officer's statement, "You

MAC Presents Satirical Musical on Dating

By Laura Fedak Pedulli

Dating and relationships are never completely seamless, and often are responsible for euphoria, heartache, or just plain growing pains in the souls who pursue lasting love. Taking on these universal themes, the Marion Art Center's I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change – a 1997 hit musical – lightens up these topics with satire and a dose of humor that are relatable to mostly everyone.

I Love You presents a series of vignettes on the whole spectrum of falling in love, marriage and child rearing with laughs to go with them.

"I'm fond of the show. There is a mixed blend of humor, and a thinking side to it. The warmth in the show is deeper," said Director Michael Amaral, a 22-year recent college graduate with several productions under his belt. He has led the seven-person cast through six weeks of preparation for the 90-minute musical, which incorporates a variety of musical genres.

The array of musical styles was an adventure for Musical Director Nancy Sparklin. "I've played in many, many shows since I was 18, but this one is different. Because every single piece is a different style, every time I turn the page there is a new challenge," she said of the musical, which includes blues, 50s, ballads, and country

But actress Sheila Furtado said that despite the range in music, every song is "singable." Some of the songs, which are accompanied by violin and piano, include "He Called Me," "I Will Be Loved Tonight," "Always a Bridesmaid, Never a Bride," and "Funerals are for Dating."

"It's not high theater, not low theater, but perfect theater... Everyone is getting a chance to shine," Ms. Furtado said, who has been a regular on MAC casts for more than two decades. "This is my summer home," she added.

Interestingly, two married couples are in the cast – Kim and Ric Teves and Mary and Brad Cardwell.

Joking about the prolonged "dry spell" between I Love You and his last musical production – Scrooge as an eighth grader – Mr. Teves said he relishes the opportunity "to get the creative juices flowing."

"This is a good group of people, I fell into a family," he said of the cast. Mr. Teves and Mr. Cardwell both were encouraged to join the cast by their wives

"I was dragged here," said Mr. Cardwell, although his past experiences in barbershop quartets prepared him for showtime. "It has been a lot of fun," he added.

Actress Nicole Schaub said she is especially excited about taking on roles outside of her personality. "I like acting like people I'm not usually like," she said, adding, "[The show] is so funny."

Indeed, everyone agreed that the show will bring many laughs and present stories that, as Mr. Teves said, "everyone can relate to."

"It's hilarious and funny as hell," he said.

Board Opposes Wareham Court Closing

Rochester Board of Selectmen

By Laura Fedak Pedulli

The Rochester Board of Selectmen voted to send a letter to local representatives and Chief Justice Robert Mulligan opposing the closure of the Wareham District Court during its July 25 meeting. Police Chief Paul Magee requested such an action in a letter to the board, in which he said the closure would significantly impact his department and "create a dangerous safety issue for Rochester Police Officers and the public we serve."

He went on to say that closing the court, which the department visits on a daily basis, would impact the number of officers in town to handle routine calls. Specifically, he said daily trips to Plymouth County would leave one officer to handle calls for service for more than 5,000 residents spread over 40 square miles.

"Two hours of an on-duty officer's eight-hour patrol shift will be spent driving to and from Plymouth District Court," Chief Magee wrote in the letter, citing increased fuel expenses of about $8,000 per year and greater reluctance of victims to pursue charges given the Plymouth commute factor.

The board quickly voted to submit a letter to the Chief Justice and representatives urging them to save the Wareham District courthouse, and agreed to enclose Chief Magee's letter

In other business, Town Administrator Richard LaCamera said that Marion-owned wells in Rochester found contaminated last year with high percholate levels will undergo additional monitoring. He said tests conducted showed that only one well, located at Gifford Park, surpassed the 2 parts per billion threshold at 13 parts per billion. "It's a small amount, but it still requires monitoring by the DEP," he said.

Rochester will use the engineering firm hired by Marion to monitor and report on percholate levels as required by DEP regulations. He said results of the latest testing, which involved 11 soil samples, are expected on Wednesday, July 27. He said the monitoring and reporting costs the town $4,800.

"We don't think there is any problem. The state requires more testing, so we are doing it right away as a precaution," he said.

The school project is on target for completion by August 26, Mr. LaCamera also informed the board. "The workers have been working 16-hour days and on the weekend. We're on an aggressive schedule... We'll get it done," he said. The town administrator said he has been visiting the site daily to monitor progress.

were board members John Sweeney, Patricia McArdle, Ted North, Tom Magauran, Sherman Briggs, Steve Gonsalves and Planning Board Secretary Terry Santos.

The first order of business was a discussion regarding Comments to the Marion Zoning Board of Appeals regarding the Tabor Academy Appeal of Action or Refusal to Act by the Marion Building Inspector, Scott Shippey. With all board members present, a lively discussion ensued.

Chairman Jay Ryder started out with a summation of the issue and said that, as chairman, in his opinion, it was important for the board to support the building inspector.

Mr. North brought up the issue of the proposed scoreboard and said that there had been no discussion of it. "I'm looking more at the size of it and where they plan to place it," he said.

Several board members noted that without a site plan review, details such as the size and placement of the proposed scoreboard were unknown and out of the discussion.

The majority of board members agreed that a site plan review was needed to fully understand the project details including the size and scope of the various "structures" included.

A motion was made by Mr. Briggs that if a site review plan is eventually required by the ZBA and filed by Tabor Academy, that the Marion Planning Board would have jurisdiction.

The motion was approved, with five members voting for the motion and Ms. McArdle voting against the motion.

The next order of business was the opening of a Public Hearing for J and W Realty Trust, at 119 Wareham Street, care of Nate Canto for an amendment to site plan/ Special Permit.

At issue were drainage calculations at the property, parking spaces and landscaping on the Wareham Road side of the property. "We can come up with a solution and it can be resolved," said Mr. Canto, regarding the rain runoff and drainage issues at the property.

The board agreed that Mr. Canto needed more time to meet with engineers to resolve the issues. A motion was approved to continue the Public Hearing to August 8 at 7:10 pm.

Minutes of the June 6, 2011 meetings were approved.

With no more business to come before the board, they adjourned at 7:35 pm.

an Approval Not Required (ANR) application for conservation protection of a five-acre parcel at the Rochester Memorial School site at its July 26 meeting. Conservation Agent Laurell Farinon said that the land would be protected as part of mitigation for the construction and expansion project underway at the school, which is situated in area with endangered species.

Ms. Farinon noted that the state's Natural Heritage and Endangered Species Program originally wanted nine acres protected, but was lenient with the town. The town will be able to maintain two wells on the site, which are protected by a 16-foot radius around them.

In addition, the board approved a single lot exception plan for applicant Deb Arney, for the conveyance of 29.6 acres of land at 72 Marion Road to the town of Rochester for conservation purposes. The town is acquiring this land in conjunction with the Rochester Land Trust, Ms. Farinon explained. The land abuts the Dexter Lane ball fields, which she said could be accessed by a trail.

In other business, the board determined that site plan changes for Forest Landing, a age-restricted subdivision project slated for construction, are minor and thus do not trigger an additional public hearing. The board approved the project in February 2010, but developer Mario DiBona has just recently received approval from the Conservation Commission and Board of Health to proceed. Chairman Arnie Johnson said that if the construction does not begin by a certain deadline, Mr. DiBona would have to apply for an extension.

A new bylaw governing rules for home-based businesses also was discussed. The board is finalizing plans for review by the Board of Selectmen, which will refer it back to the board for a public hearing.

meeting, whether this fall or spring," Mr. Johnson said.

With relatively few projects before the board at this time, members agreed to work on creating and revising bylaws to benefit the town. Specifically, the board discussed crafting bylaws as recommended by the Housing Production Plan, currently under review by the Selectmen, such as designating in-law apartments as affordable to increase Rochester's official stock of affordable housing.

"This is a step in the right direction, to get the state off our back," John DeMaggio said.

Member Susan Peterson indicated that as a representative of the Open Space Committee, she would like the board to look at transferable development rights.

Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

Inside versus outside cats

I have a new kitten and I am trying to decide whether to let him out or to keep him as an inside cat. Any thoughts?

Cats that go outside are exposed to a multitude of dangers. These include cat fights, cars, coyotes, ticks and fleas, heartworms and infectious diseases such as feline leukemia virus and feline AIDS.

What can I do to protect my cat if I decide to let him out?

Cars, coyotes, Feline AIDS and other cats are best avoided by leaving your cat inside. Ticks and fleas can be controlled by applying Frontline Top Spot once a month. Heartworms can be prevented by using Heartgard monthly and the risk of Feline Leukemia virus can be minimized through vaccination.

She promised to formally bring up the topic at a later meeting date. Mr. Johnson suggested examining a case out of Norwell – where a farm was protected under an agreement between the town and a developer.

"It netted $2 million to the towns general fund... It is a great plan to have in our back pocket," he said.

The board also agreed to look at updating the flexible development bylaw to incorporate new Board of Health rules.

Mattapoisett Zoning Board of Appeals

By Joan Hartnett-Barry

A meeting of the Mattapoisett Board of Appeals was held on Thursday, July 21, at the Mattapoisett Town Hall to open public hearings on six applications. Chairperson Jeffrey Chase opening the meeting. Also attending were board members, Steve Vaites, Susan Atkin, Ken Pacheco, Mary Anne Brogan and recording secretary Maria Cananzey. Building Inspector Andy Barbola was also present.

The first item addressed was a petition by Thomas and Lisa Gamache of 6 Waterview Lane regarding property located at 6 Waterview Lane. The Gamaches were seeking a variance under Section 6.5 of the Zoning By-Laws to construct an in-ground swimming pool that does not meet the required setbacks. A letter from the applicants' requesting a "withdrawal without petition" was read, meaning that the applicant can file again in the future.

Next up was an application by Tina Uihlein by Peter Pometti of Cotuit, MA regarding property located at 2 Pine Ridge Drive. The applicant was seeking a Special Permit to allow the construction of a guest house with a garage under. The lot was originally two lots combined into one, so the board felt that there was sufficient area to support the request. It was noted that the property was within the Bay Club and that the Bay Club had agreed to the petition. The board approved the request.

Next was an application by Jeanne Downey, care of Gregory Downey of 175 North Street regarding property located at the intersection of Mattapoisett Neck

Road and Whaler's Way. The applicant was seeking a Special Permit to construct a dwelling on a lot that has similar frontage and area and to use the grandfathered setbacks. The issue involved two lots, which the applicant requested be united into one single lot, to build a home using the grandfathered, pre-1973 zoning set-backs. Mr. Downey presented to the board and gave a history of the surrounding neighborhood. One of the lots, according to Mr. Downey, involves wetlands and the proposed dwelling would be further away from the wetland area. The board approved the request.

An application by Louise Vandal was discussed regarding property located at 1 Beaver Path. Ms. Vandal was seeking a Special Permit to construct a family related apartment. Ms. Vandal spoke to the board and said that the house is now too large for her and she wants to downsize and live in an "in-law" apartment to be built onto the existing dwelling. Board members noted that the square footage of the addition was less than the 700 square foot maximum for a family in law addition approved at town meeting in May of 2011. The board approved the request.

A discussion followed regarding an application by Raymond and Susan Drouin of 17 Prince Snow Circle who were seeking a Special Permit to allow an existing family related apartment.

At issue was an already existing basement apartment, built by contractors, without permits. The Drouin family, who was present, was represented by attorney Elizabeth Kunz. Ms. Kunz said that Ms. Drouins' parents lived with the family, in the apartment and also lived with the family prior to their move to the home. The application was approved with agreement that the apartment would go through the usual permitting process, after the fact.

It was noted that several changes in the unit would occur, including additional egress via the bedroom windows and other changes that may come into play. The applicant must go through the normal permitting process, retroactively, and adhere to all electrical and plumbing inspections and conform to any requirements missed in the original conversion.

Last up was an application by the Town of Mattapoisett/ Water and Sewer Department of 19 County Road regarding property located at 39 Mattapoisett Neck Road. The applicant is seeking a Special Permit to construct a Municipal Sewer Pumping Station.

At issue was a change in the location of the water and sewer pumping station on Mattapoisett Neck Road. The original location chosen was disqualified due to a conservation restriction which was not evident on the deed, after the decision was made to place it there. A second location was selected at 39 Mattapoisett Neck Road and the town was seeking approval to place it at the proposed location and move forward with the sewer expansion. meeting.

Abutter and summer resident Bobbie O'Hare said that she became aware only 10 days ago of the abutters plans to place the pumping station next to her home at 41 Mattapoissett Neck Road.

Ms. O'Hare also owns a vacant buildable lot nearby, which she said she plans to have her son build a house in the future. Ms. O'Hare said that under the originally proposed location of the pump-house, she did not qualify for a sewer hook up and wanted confirmation that she would get one now that the pump-house was next door to her property. The board said that she needed to apply and couldn't guarantee a hook up, but considering the circumstances, it was likely that she would qualify. Board members said that any request for a stub at the vacant lot would go in with all the other requests received over time by the water and sewer department.

Several of the attendees spoke and urged the board to vote positively on the issue to avoid any further delays in bringing the sewer line up Mattapoissett Neck Road.

After much discussion, the new location of the pumping station was approved for installation at 39 Mattapoissett Neck Road.

The meeting adjourned at 8:10 pm.

Subcom. Defines Mattapoissett Water Use

Marine Advisory Board Subcom.

By Anne Kakley

At a July 21 meeting, a Marine Advisory Subcommittee determined that Mattapoissett waters spanning from Strawberry Point to Ned's Point would not be suitable for aquaculture endeavors.

Chairman Alan Gillis explained to a large group of interested residents that the subcommittee had been formed by the Board of Selectmen, and charged with designating Mattapoissett waters with four different categories: recreational, mooring, navigational and "other".

The group's report, which is due to the selectmen around Labor Day, is one step in the town's quest to create a streamlined aquaculture application process. Water areas designated as "other" will be considered fair game for aquaculture proposals, but Mr. Gillis pointed out that even if aquaculture applications were received for these areas, they would still have to be approved by the selectmen, and at the state level with the Division of Marine Fisheries.

The subcommittee members present – Mr. Gillis, Carlos DeSousa and Walter Reed – said that their work would be partly based on resident feedback, and during their hour-long meeting, they heard audience members describe the various uses of the waters covered in the meeting.

"I don't imagine anyone...would want to set fishing gear off of Strawberry Point because it's blowing out there 90 percent of the time and it's loaded with rocks," said resident Bill Dumas. "For the daredevils with their boats, it's a shortcut [to the harbor]."

As such, Strawberry Point was designated "recreational", and Crescent Beach was defined as "recreational" and "mooring".

Other waters that have already been covered included Shell Beach, which was described as not suitable for navigation or future mooring, and Eel Pond, which was described as not suitable for navigation or future mooring, and having little or no recreational possibility.

"Putting aquaculture in there might actually clean it up," said Mr. DeSousa.

"But you might have a hard time selling the shellfish," called out an audience member.

Although the subcommittee discussed moorings and navigational uses, the topic of aquaculture cropped up repeatedly as the main concern.

"I just want everyone to be aware of this and how dangerous it is," said resident Brett Fortin. "You can't sail through it, you can't do anything with it. You need to stay away from it...It's very loosely regulated, if at all. Whether the harbormaster has time to [regulate] this, we don't know."

The next meeting of the subcommittee will discuss the water of Brant Island Cove. The date and time of this August meeting had not yet been scheduled by the time The Wanderer went to print, but it will be posted on the town website: www.Mattapoissett.net.

this year's event included the lightweight t-shirts and their colors, elimination of ankle chips for timing, water handed to runners at the finish line and Derek Decosta's warm-up routine. 26 states were represented the Fourth of July that had 1,045 registered runners!

This year, the Committee was able to give 11 awards of $1,000 to graduating seniors at ORR who are engaged in running. Recipients are Justin Jesse, Dana Dourdeville, Amanda Tilden, Jerelle Jesse, Therese Morss and Christian Lavoie of Marion; Johanna O'Day, Benjamin Bungert of Mattapoisett and Ian Knapton, Emily Roseman, and Christine O'Donaghue of Rochester.

Every year spectators have been a huge component of the Race with their cheering, decorations, playing of music and displaying of t-shirts. To honor this enthusiasm the Committee decided at the end of the 2012 Race to award the "most spirited spectator site".

A true community effort is always in full force July 4 and we thank you!

encourage everyone to wear bicycle helmets while on the roads, bike paths, and trails. It is especially important for children.

Bicyclist Safety Bill signed into law on January 15, 2009 by Governor Patrick:

1. Safer Signaling: Bicyclists were already required to use hand signals when stopping or turning, but now it is clear that you are not required to signal when you need both hands on the handlebars, such as when operating the brakes, shifters, or steering.

2. Riding Two Abreast Permitted: Bicyclists are no longer restricted to riding single file at all times. You can now ride two abreast (two bicycles, side-by-side), except that you still have to help faster vehicles to pass. So stay in single file when cars need to get by! On multi-lane roads, you can ride two abreast, but all the cyclists in your group must stay in one lane (which will usually be the right-hand lane unless you are making a left turn).

Changes for Motorists:

3. Don't "Door" Bicyclists: Motorists (and their passengers) can now be ticketed and fined up to $100 for opening car or truck doors into the path of any other traffic, including bicycles and pedestrians. "Dooring" is a frequent cause of bicycle crashes and bicyclist injuries, and while motorists could already be sued in civil court or charged in criminal court under certain circumstances, they could not previously be ticketed and fined on the spot by a police officer.

4. Don't Cut Off Bicyclists After Passing: Motorists used to be required only to stay a safe distance to the left of a bicyclist (or any other vehicle) when passing; now, motorists are also prohibited from returning to the right until safety clear of the bicyclist.

5. Don't Squeeze Bicyclists in Narrow Lanes: If the lane is too narrow for a motorist to pass a bicycle (or any other vehicle) at a safe distance while staying in the lane, the motorist must use another lane to pass, or, if that is also unsafe, the motorist must wait until it is safe to pass.

6. Don't "Right-Hook" Bicyclists: A "right-hook" is when a motorist makes an abrupt right turn too close to a bicyclist, causing the cyclist to crash or make an emergency maneuver to avoid crashing. Motorists are now prohibited from making abrupt right turns at intersections and driveways after passing a cyclist.

7. Yield to All Bicycles Before Turning Left: Motorists are already required to yield to oncoming vehicles (including bicycles) before turning left. The law now expressly includes yielding to bicyclists riding to the right of other traffic (e.g., on the shoulder), where they are legally permitted but may be more difficult for motorists to see.

8. Motorists Liable for Hitting Bicyclists Riding to the Right: Bicycles, unlike other vehicles, are permitted to ride to the right of other traffic (e.g., on the shoulder), and motorists are not permitted to use this fact as a legal defense for causing a crash with a bicyclist.

Also, we encourage all cyclists to wear certified bicycle helmets. It is extremely important to prevent head injury. Parents, please make sure your children wear one. A tragic fact: Each year nearly half a million children and adolescents suffer head injury resulting from a fall from a bike or scooter in America. A significant number of these youth suffer long-term consequences of these incidents, forever changing their lives. This rather common occurrence is preventable if children are taught to simply wear bike helmets

To the Editor:

We are writing to inform you of the recent changes and developments involving the Rochester Country Fair. We are happy to announce that we will soon have a new fairgrounds, located on Pine Street in Rochester. We are very thankful to Gibbs V. Bray for use of the property at Plumb Corner for 11 County Fair Celebrations. Without his support, the Fair couldn't have grown to such a popular community event.

During the transitional period, the Rochester Country Fair will hold a "Family Fun Day" on Sunday, August 21, at the Dexter Lane Recreation Park, at 33 Dexter Lane. This is the site where we have lined up the parade the past two years, right down the street from the

This year's Family Fun Day will include a "1960-something" themed parade which will kick off the event at 10:00 am. The day's festivities will also include live music by The Relics, tractor show, town ball games, vinyl record decorating contest, Skip Daniels magic show sponsored by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, pie eating contest, sack races and other related children's events. The event will also feature a chainsaw artist to benefit Wellspring Farm and the Police Brotherhood Golf Ball Drop. Come hungry – there will be plenty of food, demonstrators and craft vendors.

As you can see, we will be holding a lot of activities on this one-day celebration and we hope that you will join us! We will not be putting together a program book this year. However, if you would like to support the Rochester Country Fair's Family Fun Day, or the Fair with the construction of the new fairgrounds, we will graciously accept any support you can provide. Donations can be sent to: Town of Rochester Country Fair, P.O. Box 321, Rochester, MA 02770. Please visit www.RochesterMA.com for additional information and updates.

To the Editor:

My mother lives at Village Court and tenants still do not know who gave the orders to bolt shut the sliding glass doors from the outside. The doors were bolted shut on the east section of the Mattapoisett Housing Authority's (MHA) Village Court complex June 2, 2011. At the June 9 housing authority meeting, a prominent board member said she would "look into it." We are waiting. The executive director blamed "Boston" and the "State". When tenants inquired as to who in "Boston," she replied, "I don't remember; I don't know. I can check in the office. It was done as an experiment." Tenants deserve to know who ordered those sliding glass doors bolted shut from the outside. This is more than carelessness or negligence; it is criminal.

Although the doors were unbolted June 16, 2011, the MHA's executive director is adamant the glass doors, which tenants have opened uneventfully and predictably for 30 years, remain shut for health and safety reasons. Temperatures soared to 99 degrees in the hallways last week. Many residents felt sick.

I posit that the "new policy" to permanently shut sliders has little to do with health and safety. It is a pretext to cover up for the lack of maintenance over the decades, which have contributed to many sliding glass doors and other mechanical systems either inoperable or barely operable. Asserting concern for tenant's health and safety is merely a fig leaf to cover up for years of negligence in the supervision of maintenance personnel and shoddy workmanship at Village Court. It seems the real threat to tenant health, safety and welfare is the dysfunctional management of Village Court – not sliders ordered shut against the manufacturers intended use of providing ventilation.

I am asking for a top to bottom investigation of the Mattapoissett Housing Authority as well as the executive director's judgment, managerial skills, and decision making abilities, particularly, as it relates to who gave the order to bolt the sliding glass doors shut from the outside. Someone must be held responsible and accountable.

We need answers.

Eileen J. Marum

Marion Concert Band

The Marion Concert Band will present a program of music from the British Isles on Monday, August 1. The program, which features several classic British Brass Band pieces, is as follows:

National Anthem; Knightsbridge March - E.
Coates; Lincolnshire Posy – P. Grainger; Crown Imperial
– W. Walton; Second Suite for Military Band – G. Holst;
Irish Tune from County Derry – P. Grainger; Shepherd's
Hey – P. Grainger; Sarabande and Polka (from Solitaire)
– M. Arnold; Prelude, Siciliano and Rondo – M. Arnold;
Colonel Bogey – K. J. Alford.

One highlight of the evening will be an appearance by members of the Cape Cod British Car

The Last Five Years at ORR

The Last Five Years will be performed by Aaron Valente and Christine Eubanks in the Old Rochester Regional High School Auditorium.

The Last Five Years, is a contemporary song-cycle musical that ingeniously chronicles the five-year life of a marriage, from meeting to break-up... or from break-up to meeting, depending on how you look at it. Written by Jason Robert Brown (Parade, Songs for a New World), The Last Five Years is an intensely personal look at the relationship between a writer and an actress told from both points of view.

Aaron Valente, an alumnus of Old Rochester and Christine Eubanks, an alumnus of New Bedford High comprise the cast of The Last Five Years. The show is produced and had vocal direction by Aaron Valente, orchestral direction by James Hay, with costume by Helen Blake.

Presented in the Gilbert D. Bristol Auditorium of ORR, presented through special arrangement with Entry forms can be printed from www.jbrace.com or www.RochesterMA.com, or participants can register on-line at www.jbrace.com. Runners and walkers can also register and pick up numbers, on Friday evening from 5:00 pm to 7:00 pm at the First Congregational Church of Rochester or on Saturday morning from 8:00 am to 8:45 am, at Dexter Lane athletic fields in Rochester.

This year the entry fee for those 12 or under and 70 or older has been reduced to $10. T-Shirts will be provided to the first 300 registrants.

The race is incorporated as a non-profit organization and net proceeds from entry fees will be donated to "The Family Pantry - Damien's Place" in Wareham. In addition, participants and spectators are encouraged to bring non-perishable food items which will be collected prior to the race and donated to the food pantry. Damien's Place provides food to over 500 families in need each month. Last year the Rochester Road Race raised $4,000 for the pantry and donated over 520 pounds of food. In total, the race has raised over $17,500 in the past five years.

Awards will be given to the top overall male and female finishers and top three males and females in each of eight age divisions. Refreshments, goodie bags and a chance to win raffle prizes will be available for all participants.

The race will start on Dexter Lane, continue down Mary's Pond Road to Walnut Plain, and turn left on Clapp Road. A water stop will be set up on Clapp Road at the halfway point. Runners will turn left onto Mendell Road, and then make another left onto Rounseville Road, finishing on the church green in the center of town.

Rochester Country Fair Family Fun Day

The Rochester Country Fair Family Fun Day will take place on August 21, at the Dexter Lane Recreation Park, located at 33 Dexter Lane. At 10:00 am, there will be a "1960-something" themed parade. Parade check-in starts at 8:00 am.

The parade will be followed by food, craft vendors and demonstrations, an all-day antique tractor show, a chainsaw artist, sack races, a hula hoop contest,

AYA Seeks Mattapoisett Families

In August, Academic Year in America (AYA) is looking for Mattapoisett families to host high school exchange students from all over the world.

This year, AYA is bringing hundreds of German high school students to the U.S. to learn about American culture while living with volunteer host families and studying at high schools across the nation. American families have the unique opportunity to learn about the German culture during this mutually rewarding exchange.

To learn more about hosting a German exchange student with AYA, contact Local Coordinator, Lisa Breen at 508-224-0148 or abbreen@msn.com.

Students are ages 15 to 18 and arrive with full medical insurance, spending money, and the hopes of experiencing life in America through the eyes of a caring host family. The students stay with their host for five or 10 months and attend the local high school.

Who can host a student through AYA? According to AYA Director Melanie French, an important aspect of the AYA program is that there are many types of people who can host.

"Just as there is no typical American family, there is no typical host family," said Ms. French. "Retirees, single parents and young couples are all able to give an international student a good home. Some host families may not even have children of their own. Bringing a student into your home can mean giving the gift of culture to yourself, your family, your community - whomever would benefit from exposure to a new culture."

To learn more about hosting an exchange student with AYA, call Stella at 1-800-322-4678, ext. 5164, or email aya.info@aifs.org. Visit AYA on the web at www.AcademicYear.org.

Marion Art Center News

• I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change – The Marion Art Center is now accepting reservations for its Summer Musical: I Love You, You're Perfect, Now Change! The show opens on Thursday, July 28 with performances on Friday, July 29, Saturday, July 30, Friday, August 5 and Saturday, August 6. All shows are at 7:30 pm.

With book and lyrics by Joe DiPietro and music by Jimmy Roberts this revue style musical is a satirical serenade to the dating world. During a series of fun-filled and humorous vignettes interspersed with songs, all the aspects of love and relationships are explored. The dancing, acting, and singing will inspire audiences to reflect, laugh and perhaps cry a bit, but overall this show is a feel good evening of fun! The show can be upbeat as in "He Called Me" but can be quite sentimental as in "I Will Be Loved Tonight," or sarcastic as in "Always a Bridesmaid, Never a Bride".

The show features a cast of Marion Art Center favorites: Sheila Furtado, Mary Cardwell, Nicole Schaub, Kim Teves, Brad Cardwell, and Ric Teves. Michael Amaral bridges the gap between actor and director doing scenic design, stage direction, and selected choreography as he appears alongside this stellar cast under the musical direction of the talented Nancy Sparklin.

Tickets are $12.50 for Marion Art Center members and $15.00 for general admission. Tables are available for reserved parties of 4 or more. Reservations are highly recommended: 508-748-1266

• Small Works – The Exhibition Committee of the Marion Art Center will be hosting an invitational show of "Small Works" to be shown from October 7 to November 16, 2011. Artists wishing to be considered for this exhibition are invited to provide a link to their website, and/or submit digital images via e-mail to:

Memorial Service

Helen C. Durfee There will be a graveside service at 11 a.m., Saturday, August 6, at Pine Island Cemetery, Mattapoisett.

Helen's friends are invited to join her family for lunch following the service at the Dean residence, 5 Bay View Ave. on Mattapoisett Neck.

Obituaries:

Bryant G. Eddleston, 76, died Saturday, July 16, 2011 at Tobey Hospital in Wareham after a long illness. He was the husband of Faye E. (Kiernan) Eddleston.

Born in Rochester, the son of the late Herbert & Gladys (Silvia) Eddleston, he has been a resident of Wareham since 1965. He graduated from Wareham High School. Mr. Eddleston was a marine mechanic at Warr's Marine in Wareham for 48 years. He was also a Marine Corps veteran serving during the Korean War. Mr. Eddleston enjoyed gardening and traveling to Maine.

He is survived by his wife; three daughters, Mary K. Eddleston of Gardner, ME, Karen A. Bumpus of Wareham and Elizabeth Larner of E. Wareham, and his grandchildren, Sgt. Jonathan Bumpus, U.S.M.C., Jeremy Bumpus, Miya Bumpus, Grace Larner and Myles Larner.

A graveside committal will take place at the Massachusetts National Cemetery, Bourne at a later date.

Donations in his memory may be made to American Cancer Society, 5 Manley Street, W. Bridgewater, MA 02379.

Daniel J. Mullens, 72, of Mattapoisett died peacefully July 21, 2011 at St. Luke's Hospital surrounded by his family. He was the husband of Diane (Krystofolski) Mullens. They would have celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary on July 22nd.

The son of the late George W. and Amelia (Jarrell) Mullens, he was born and raised in West Virginia. In 1959, Mr. Mullens came to live in Massachusetts after serving in the United States Navy. He was employed by Barnes Tree Service until he began his own tree company. In 1966, he purchased Barnes from the late Carl S. Barnes. He was a proud business owner and remained an active voice in the company until his death.

Dan had a passion for baseball and softball. For many years he sponsored a moderate pitch softball team. His proudest moment was when his softball team won the ASA Class A State Modified Tournament in the late 1980's. For many years he donated his time to umpire youth baseball in Rochester.

He will be best remembered for his hard work ethic, compassion for animals, and love for his family, especially his four grandchildren.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his daughters, Brenda Sylvia and her husband David of Rochester and Kim Fleurent and her husband David of Rochester. Dan is survived by the following siblings: George W. Mullins of Tiverton Rhode Island, Cecil A. Mullens of Roanoke Virginia, Dora Lee Brammer of Coal City, West Virginia, John L. Mullens of Fairdale, West Virginia, Ronald E. Mullens of Wareham, Benny C. Mullens of Christianburg, Virginia and Linda C. Hunt of Sophia, West Virginia. He leaves behind his four favorite people, his grandchildren; Ryan Sylvia of Cambridge, England, Daniel (DJ) Sylvia, Kayla Fleurent, and David Fleurent Jr. all of Rochester.

He is predeceased by his brother James R. Mullens and his sister Betty M. Roberts.

Visiting hours will be Friday, July 29th at the Saunders-Dwyer Mattapoisett Home for Funerals, 50 County Road, Route 6, Mattapoisett from 5 - 8 PM. His memorial service will be held Saturday, July 30th at Church in the Pines, 17 Carver Road, West Wareham at 11:00 AM. The burial will be private.

Donations in his memory can be made to the Syringomyelia Foundation (ASAP, Inc.), PO Box 1586, Longview, TX 75606-1586. For directions and guestbook, please visit www.saundersdwyer.com.

Andre P. "Andy" Gauvin, 78, died Friday, July 22, 2011 at his home in East Wareham. He was the husband of Margaret L. (Perry) Gauvin.

Born in New Bedford, the son of the late Oliver J. and Juliette (Pare) Gauvin, he moved to Wareham in 1957. Mr. Gauvin was employed by Suburban Propane, now Ameri-Gas for many years as a truck driver. He retired in 1993.

An avid hunter and fisherman, Mr. Gauvin was a member of the Wankinquoah Rod and Gun Club, the Bass Anglers Sportsman Society and the National Rifle Association. He also enjoyed cooking, yard sales and collecting duck decoys.

Survivors include his wife; his children, Denise M. DePree and her husband Kim of Myrtle Beach, SC, Michelle R. Ruiz and her husband Steven, Paul A. Gauvin and his wife Debra and Darryl J. Gauvin and his wife Dawna all of E. Wareham, Andrea L. Buckley and her husband Matthew of Mattapoisett, and Monique L. Hodges and her husband Greg of Plymouth; two brothers, Bernard Gauvin of Mattapoisett and Ronald Gauvin of New Bedford and FL; his sister, Claire Hartigan of Canton; 12 grandchildren and 1 great grandson.

He was predeceased by his brothers, the late Jean and Norman Gauvin.

Visiting hours will be Sun., Jul. 31st at the Chapman, Cole & Gleason Funeral Home, 2599 Cranberry Highway (Rt. 28), Wareham from 5 - 8 PM.

A memorial service will be held on Mon., Aug. 1, 2011 at the Emmanuel Church of the Nazarene, 6 Rogers Ave., Wareham at 10:00 AM. Interment will be private. Donations in his memory may be made to the Grace Lighthouse Fellowship, P.O. Box 1, Wareham, MA 02571 for the "Mom Perry Memorial Scholarship Fund".

Tri-Town History

Marconi Tower a Marion Landmark

You can see it from Sippican Harbor, its red beacon blinking, marking the way back through Buzzards Bay. The local senior housing development is named after it and a town restaurant took its name from it. Today, the Marconi Tower is a town landmark and a notch in the belt of the growth of communication technology.

It's hard to believe that in less than one hundred years, communication via 408 foot towers, requiring massive manpower to communicate by Morse Code have evolved to a palm size smartphone with worldwide internet capability.

"Today it has satellite dishes on it sides and osprey live on top," said Pete Smith, curator of the Sippican Historical Society. "But we were part of the history of communication in America," said Mr. Smith. In Mr. Smith's book, A Picture Post Card History Book of Marion Massachusetts, he describes the antennae array at the station and says that "it consisted of a mile-long rectangle with three 408 foot high masts on the ends, each 500 feet apart, and two perpendicular rows of masts of equal height each 900 feet apart – 14 in all. The masts supported an aerial made up of 32 wires each a mile long."

According to Mr. Smith, Marion was the sending station for long-wave transmissions of weather information while Chatham was the receiving station. The power plant had a 300 kilowatt output. The station was used during World War II by the Army, Navy and Air Force. Today, only the remains of one tower exists. The others were taken down in the 1960s.

Joyce Kohout, a Marion native, has done extensive research on the Marconi tower. Ms. Kohout's father was the Chief Engineer from 1934 through 1943 for RCA who took over the Marconi properties after World War II.

"A great part of the antenna system was below ground," said Ms. Kohout in her presentation on the Marconi/RCA station. "Iron wire was embedded in the earth, but a new system was put in with the alternators, which were copper. Some rusted out over time and as a result, there would be sparks across the gaps and little puffs of smoke would rise from the ground during transmission."

Ms. Kohout recalls a spectacular fire with flames reaching 100 feet in the air across a quarter mile. "The brush had been cut down, but the fire got into the ground wires and was uncontrollable. Those nice open areas later grew fantastic blueberries," said Ms. Kohout.

Ms. Kohout jokes that when she was a young girl and would get into a tussle, she'd tell a classmate that she'd have her father turn off their house lights. Classmate, Mary Washburn would jump in to say that she'd have her father turn Kohout's lights out first.

According to Ms. Kohout, Guglielmo Marconi, born in Italy to an Italian father and British mother, had no formal education and was homeschooled. "He bewitched his mother with demonstrations which rang bells in another room with no wires running between the devices," said Ms. Kohout. Marconi knew that his invention could be used commercially to send messages and approached the Italian government which showed no interest.

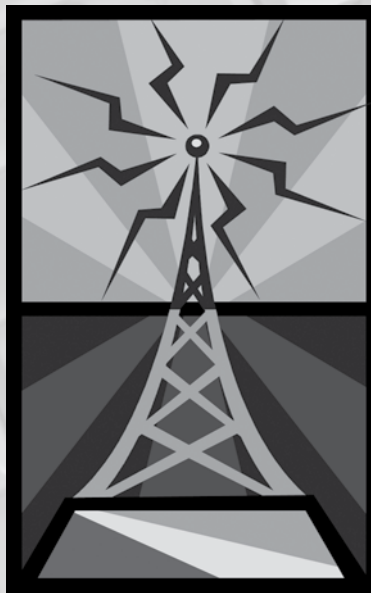

Marconi's mother took him to London where he had better luck. "Marconi held demonstrations, took out patents and gradually convinced powerful people of the usefulness of his wireless invention, particularly as a way to communicate with ships," said Ms. Kohout.

According to Ms. Kohout, the messages being sent through the Marion Marconi plant could not be understood by the men working there. "The material was sent over telephone lines from New York City under a system that could key over 500 words a minute in teletype messages," said Ms. Kohout. During the 1920s, news reports were sent to cruise ships to publish daily on-board papers and wealthy individuals communicated from their yachts to friends.

"RCA even had a medical service for subscribing ships on emergency conditions," said Ms. Kohout. "It guaranteed a doctor would be available instantly to advise on emergency conditions."

Ms. Kohout said that several famous people communicated via the Marconi Towers including Admiral Byrd, Mrs. Lindbergh, Ann Lindbergh and the Graf Zeppelin while moving between Berlin and South America.

For more information on the Marconi Tower/RCA Station, visit the Sippican Historical Society Museum at 139 Front Street, Marion, MA.

tours are sponsored by the Fairhaven Office of Tourism and begin at the town's Visitors Center at 43 Center Street. The 90-minute tours are held, weather permitting, through the end of September.

Harbor Sail Summer Faire

Come enjoy a spectacular summer faire by the harbor! The Mattapoisett Congregational Church proudly presents its annual summer faire on July 30 from 9:00 am to 1:00 pm, to be held on the church grounds at 27 Church Street, Mattapoisett.

This year, the Faire will again feature furniture, an upscale yard sale, toys, and children's games. There will be great, one-of-a-kind deals! Coffee and water will be available to quench your thirst, too.

If you have any furniture donations in good condition, please call Kim Field at 508-493-4896 by July 22 to schedule a pick up. Furniture may also be left at the Church Hall until July 26. Small items in good condition (no electronics, books, clothes or luggage, please) may be left at the Church Hall. All proceeds will benefit the Mattapoisett Congregational Church.

History Museum Summer Programs

Join the Marion Natural History Museum for a great summer near the water with two opportunities designed to get your kids outside this summer.

• Life Along the Shore – Session II: August 1 to August 12. The program runs from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm, Monday through Friday.

The Marion Natural History Museum wishes to welcome Anna Chase, seaside naturalist for the Life Along the Shore program. She will join seasoned teacher Dede Smith in making this summer program for grades entering 1 and 2 the best ever. During this program students will be visiting the shoreline and exploring the plants and animals that live in our area's many coastal habitats. With the use of games, journals and introductory science techniques, this will be a wonderful first look at life in our coastal environment. For students entering grades 1 and 2.

• Coastal Explorations I and II –Session II: August 1 to August 12. The program runs from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm, Monday through Friday.

Experienced High School Biology teacher Nealyn Dunlop will lead the Coastal Explorations I program this summer. This program will feature explorations of our rocky intertidal shoreline, salt marshes, estuaries as well as freshwater riverbanks, swamps, ponds and bogs. Students will look at the birds, amphibians, fish and invertebrates that make these areas so special. For students entering grades 3 and 4.

Museum Director Elizabeth Leidhold will lead our Coastal Explorations II program. During this program we will further enjoy the unique habitats Marion has to offer by including several field trips to expand our knowledge of our Coastal and Freshwater ecosystems. For students entering grades 5 through 7.

At the Marion Natural History Museum, all teachers and assistants are experienced educators and/or scientists and look forward to having another fun summer exploring our natural habitats with the kids. To register please visit www.MarionMuseum.org and print out the registration form and submit with payment.

Mattapoissett Track Club

The Mattapoissett Track Club will continue from 6:00 to 8:00 pm at Old Rochester Regional High School every Monday and Wednesday night until August 10. Registration will be at 5:00 pm every night before practice. Membership fee is $40 per member. The Mattapoissett Track Club is open to all children three years of age and older regardless of residence. Summer residents are always welcome.

Summer Video Camps at ORCTV

ORCTV is offering two video production camps to Tri-Town youth. These camps will run for two weeks each during July and August. Youth will learn digital camcorders, editing and studio production. Space is limited. The cost is $200 per child per session, ages 12-15. Please call ORCTV 508-748-1600 to sign up or for more information. Price includes snacks, T- shirt and Annual Membership.

10th Annual ORR Tennis Camp

The Old Rochester School District will sponsor the 10th annual ORR Tennis Camps for students and adults. The student sessions will be held again Monday, August 1 through August 5. Two classes will be offered each day.

MOVIE REVIEW

Super Duper

By Rob Gonsalves

Captain America: The First Avenger.* Starring Chris Evans and Hugo Weaving. Directed by Joe Johnston. Running time: 125 minutes. MPAA rating: PG-13.

"I don't want to kill anybody," says scrawny 4F Steve Rogers (Chris Evans) in answer to whether he wants to go kill Nazis. "I don't like bullies. I don't care where they're from." And there's the way into Captain America: The First Avenger even for long-haired lefty peaceniks like me. The movie's politics pretty much stay that simplistic, but then it harks back to a more simplistic time, when America's enemies were big and bad and all you had to know was where they were so you could shoot 'em. Despite being a sickly stick figure, Steve desperately wants to join the Army so he can go fight in World War II. He rejects the notion of finding some way to serve at home; other men, including his buddy Bucky (Sebastian Stan), are charging into the lion's mouth, and he doesn't feel he has a right to do any less than what they're prepared to do.

The CGI-depleted Chris Evans, by way of a "super soldier serum," becomes normal, beefed-up Chris Evans, and he proves his mettle right away, chasing a spy through the alleys and crowded streets of 1942 Brooklyn. Here and elsewhere, the production design is impeccable, a dream of the wartime big city as seen on Life magazine covers (and probably only there), and director Joe Johnston proves his mettle, too. I can't say he has a vision, but he has a solid sense of pace and composition that stands him in good stead when he's got sturdy material to work with. (With Johnston's last effort, The Wolfman, he wasn't so lucky.) The elements, including Alan Silvestri's bombastically retro score, come together to form a ripping good adventure yarn that succeeds where J.J. Abrams' too-reverent Super 8 failed in paying homage to Steven Spielberg's salad days.

Captain America is a productive mix of square fortitude and very mild tongue-in-cheek. Even the hero's name begins as an emasculating joke: Steve, having gained some fame, is pressed into USO service wearing a laughable version of the uniform he eventually wears in combat; he stands in front of crooning showgirls, beseeching audiences to buy bonds, and the media dub him Captain America. Soon, in battle against the fearsome Red Skull (Hugo Weaving) and his army of soldiers, he will become a real captain and leader of men. The Red Skull is a Nazi so megalomaniacal he doesn't think Hitler is evil enough; with the help of a "cosmic cube" (which ties this movie to Thor) he builds super-weapons and an army of interchangeable soldiers. I could be wrong, but I think the Red Skull is personally shown killing more Nazis (out of the usual mu-ha-ha, you-dare-to-doubt-me Evil Genius pique) than Captain America is.

Indeed, the real threat in the movie is the Hydra legions, not the Nazis, which helps Captain America neatly avoid any real-world issues. Not that I'm complaining. Nobody particularly wants to see Captain America witnessing flyblown children's corpses in Auschwitz, or for that matter flinging his impenetrable shield at Iraqi insurgents. What saves the movie from dumb jingoism is Cap's reliance on a group of good, ethnically-mixed men, even including a Japanese-American soldier. The Howling Commandos, they're called in the comics, though not in the movie. The actors, particularly Evans, do what they can to invest the film with personality, but in the crunch the script sort of loses track of the people; one major character dies so abruptly, and with so little blowback aside from a brief obligatory mourning scene, that I half expected him to have survived, somehow.

Captain America sells a country's long-dead dream of itself as an aw-shucks giant modest about its power and benevolent in exercising it. This was never true, really, even before Vietnam made it abundantly clear to anyone without blinders on; see George C. Herring's From Colony to Superpower: U.S. Foreign Relations Since 1776 for the scoop on how we've treated the rest of the planet as our playpen and piggybank for centuries. But the movie, full of good humor and color and foursquare opposition to bullies, is a lacquered pop-culture valentine to the ideal of America as the good neighbor. That its symbolic hero looks more or less like an Aryan ubermensch (and was created in 1940 by two Jewish comics legends, Joe Simon and Jack Kirby) is among the many pleasant ironies spinning around in this clean, unpretentious, brawnlily entertaining fantasia.

The first class, running from 8:00 to 10:15 am, will be for students ages 7 to 11 and the second class, running from 10:30 am to 12:45 pm will be for students 12 to 18.

The lessons, which feature level flexibility and small group instruction, focus on fundamentals of stroke and footwork. Longtime ORR coach and USPTR instructor Bob Hohne will conduct the clinic along with present and former ORR players.

Adult lessons will also be offered on Monday nights for beginners, intermediate players and advanced intermediates. Sessions began on June 13 and will run for eight successive Monday nights.

The cost of the lessons for students and adults will be $96. For more details, contact Bob Hohne at 508-758-9081 or rhohne@orr.mec.edu.

Mr. Bryson, the author of A Walk in the Woods, was born in the Midwest in 1951. As a child, he took on the superhero persona of The Thunderbolt Kid. Bryson looks back on his childhood during the Baby Boom era with humor and nostalgia. This book will be discussed on Thursday, July 28 at 6:30 pm, and the discussion will coincide with the library's annual book give-away, with trivia, chocolate, and prizes. Books and audiobooks are available at the desk, or you can bring your own copy. You may also borrow a copy for your e-reader from the Overdrive service at the SAILS website. Café Parlez is sponsored by the Friends of Plumb Library.

• Celtic Storytelling – On Thursday, July 28, at 3:00 pm, the Plumb Memorial Library presents Tim Jennings and Leanne Ponder telling world tales and playing traditional music on Celtic harp and concertina. Jennings and Ponder have been called "Two of the best storytellers working in New England today" by The Storytelling Institute in New Haven, CT. The couple will present solo and duo treatments of traditional folk tales full of rogues, villainesses, heroes and heroines. Celtic airs, jigs, and hornpipes weave between and around the stories. This show is for the entire family, and will be held outside in the Reading Garden, weather permitting (inside in case of rain). SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You face the possibility of raising your relationship to another level. However, your partner might demand that you make promises for which you're not sure you're ready.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) As changes continue, expect things to get a little more hectic at your workplace. An unexpected travel opportunity could open new career prospects.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Confront the person who caused your hurt feelings and demand a full explanation for his or her actions. You'll not only recover your self-esteem, but you'll also gain the respect of others.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) That personal problem in the workplace is compounded by someone's biased interference. Stand your ground, and you'll soon find allies gathering around you.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You don't accept disapproval easily. But instead of hiding out in your den to lick your wounded pride, turn the criticism into a valuable lesson for future use.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) That former friend you thought you'd cut out of your life is still affecting other relationships. Counter his or her lies with the truth. Your friends are ready to listen.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) What appears to be an unfair situation might simply be the result of a misunderstanding. If you feel something is out of balance, by all means, correct it.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A stalled relationship won't budge until you make the first move. Your partner offers a surprising explanation about what got it mired down in the first place.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A co-worker shares some startling news, but before you can use it to your advantage, make sure it's true. The weekend favors family matters.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your usual conservative approach to family situations might not work at this time. Keep an open mind about developments, and you might be pleasantly surprised.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Plans might have to be put on hold because of a family member's problems. Don't hesitate to get involved. Your help could make all the difference.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Relationships in the home and in the workplace need your careful attention during this period. Be careful not to allow misunderstandings to create problems.

BORN THIS WEEK: You have a keen, insightful intellect and enjoy debating your views with others who disagree with you. You also love to solve puzzles -- the harder, the better.

• Summer Reading Program Ends on a Sweet Note

Participants in the Summer Reading Program "Take a Walk on the Wild Side" are encouraged to continue reading and reporting their reading progress. Reading logs should be reported by Friday, August 5 so everyone can celebrate the grand total. Join in the fun on Saturday, August 6 for "Didgeridoo," an Australian musical group who will perform at 1:30 pm. Following the concert is the Annual Ice Cream Sundae party and lawn games. Don't miss this wonderful afternoon on the library's lawn.

• Ollie the Octopus – Move over Salty, Ollie is coming to town. Students and staff have been constructing a giant octopus out of recycled materials during the summer. The group meets Tuesday evenings at 6:00 pm to work on the project, and everyone is invited to participate. Help introduce Ollie to the community during the final week of the summer reading program.

• It's a Dog's Life... or a Cat's – Join the Junior Friends on Wednesday, August 10 for a presentation on dog grooming by Emma's Grooming at 11:00 am. The program will be followed by a film at noon. Admission to G-Force is a can of cat or dog good, Q-tips or tissues. All donation will be delivered to the Dartmouth Animal Shelter.

local favorite made up of the sons of Fairhaven, please welcome and enjoy this group.

- August 4, Critical Mass – Well, they got the band back together after all these years and they are debuting here for Fairhaven on this night. This will be a special treat. Critical Mass will play that easy listening kind of rock 'roll we all remember.

- August 11, Billy Couto and The After Hours Band – Billy and the boys are here for you to sing and play "that great old music of the 40's and 50's that you can dance to".

Mattapoissett Historical Society Events

- Ashley Mural Unveiled – Nearly 100 years ago, Clifford Ashley, a well-known local artist, painted a large mural which he entitled "A Chart of the Whale Coast of New England, c. 1810". Please come and help celebrate the restoration and hanging of the mural in the Mattapoissett Museum on 5 Church Street at 5:30 pm on Sunday, July 31.

- Civil War Lecture – This year marks the 150th anniversary of the Civil War. Mattapoissett men and ships played a role in the War between the states. Seth Mendell will talk about the whaling and shipbuilding industries during the war, highlighted with stories based on fact. The lecture will be in the meeting room of the library at 7 Barstow Street on August 4 at 7:30 pm.

The program is sponsored by the Mattapoissett Historical Society as a part of the Heritage Weekend Activities.

Mattapoissett Transfer Station Hours

The Mattapoissett transfer station will be open on Sunday's from 9:00 am until 3:00 pm during the summer. Sunday hours will continue for the summer. Remember all vehicles accessing the transfer station must have a current transfer station sticker. These may be purchased at the transfer station or at the Board of Health office. Any payment for stickers or disposal should be made by check. Please ask for and retain your receipt for any and all transactions. If you have any questions, please call 508-758-4100 ext. 8 or 508-758-4355.

Free Space for Non-Profits

Each year, the Fairhaven Farmers Market offers free space for local non-profit organizations. The market is held on Sunday afternoons from 1:00 to 4:00 pm on the corner of Main Street and Route 6 on the lawn of Fairhaven High School. Your organization can sell t-shirts or other merchandise, also memberships and sign ups.

If your organization is interested, please contact Ann Richard (ann.richard@gmail.com).

For more info, search "Chuck Michaud Memorial Tournament" on Facebook or contact Jason Medeiros at 508-789-3115 or e-mail michaudgolf@aol.com for more information.

Chuck Michaud was a football, baseball and most notably a hockey coach at Old Rochester High School. His charismatic style brought out the best in his players, both on and off the playing field. His friends and former players lead this project and his legacy continues on the ice at Old Rochester as former Michaud player Scott Hartley is the varsity ice hockey head coach.

Cranberry Coast Concert Schedule

The regional music festival, whose motto is "From Bach to Rock" will present local, national and international touring concert artists in a wide variety of performance environments. Cranberry Coast Concerts (CCC) will offer different concert experiences each week to local audiences. The CCC summer schedule is:

- Outstanding Youth Concert – Rising stars from the local community will be featured in CCC's annual "Outstanding Young Artists Concert," Friday, July 29, 7:00 pm at Eastern Bank, 226 Main Street, Wareham, MA, 02571. This performance is free to the community. All donations will be accepted in benefit of the festival.

- Swing – In their annual theatrical musical review, CCC will present "Spectacular Night – It Don't Mean A Thing If It Ain't Got That Swing!" Wednesday,

Marion Community Baptist Church

For the second summer, Sunday morning will begin at Community Baptist Church of Marion with continental breakfast at 9:00 am followed by worship at 9:30 am. The theme for the summer is "Teachings from the Sermon on the Mount." The Sermon on the Mount, found in the Gospel of Matthew contains the essential ethical teachings of the Christian faith. These foundational texts teach how Christians are to live their lives in today's world.

- July 31 – Sermon Title: "Rotten Apples"
- August 7 – Sermon Title (Communion Sunday) "Holy Savings Accounts"
- August 14 – Sermon Title: "Don't Worry -- Be Happy!"
- August 21 – Sermon Title: "Of Planks and Sawdust"
- August 28 – Sermon Title: "Wide Load"

Marion Community Baptist Church's worship services are a blend of contemporary and traditional styles. All are welcome and dress is casual. Join us this summer for a friendly, casual worship experience. The Church is an American Baptist located at 441 Front Street (Route 105) at the Junction of Interstate 195. Tri-Town Early Childhood Program

The Tri-Town Early Childhood Program, located at Old Rochester Regional High School, is accepting applications for the 2011/2012 school year. A limited number of spaces are available. Applications will be accepted on a first come, first serve basis. The enrollment policy is based on a balance of three and four-year-olds, a balance of boys and girls, and a balance among residents of the three member towns.

The preschool program serves three and four-year-olds and follows the school calendar. It is unique in that it provides a high quality early childhood education opportunity to preschoolers, while also offering high school students a chance to learn about working in

SHERMAN'S LAGOON by J.P. Toomey

IT WAS 20 YEARS AGO THAT SHARK TOOK MY LEG OFF.

I'LL GO TO MY GRAVE HATING THAT FOUL BEAST WITH EVERY FIBER OF MY BEING.

WHAT IF I TOLD YOU I AM THAT SHARK? I'VE CHANGED INTO A HUMAN TO HELP YOU GET CLOSURE.

HUG?

WHAT HAVE YOU HEARD ABOUT MY CHARTERS?

the field of early childhood education. A licensed early childhood teacher and a rotation of high school students staff the classroom.

Tennis Instruction for Kids

The Fairhaven Tennis Association is sponsoring United States Tennis Association (USTA) 10 and Under Tennis Clinics at Hastings Middle School.

The 10 and Under USTA Program uses a progressive approach to teach juniors the skills they need to play real tennis shortly after picking up a racquet. Children learn using larger tennis balls that are slower, lighter and bounce lower than conventional tennis balls. Additionally, the court size is reduced to make it easier for children to play. USTA instructors have received training and have had experience in working with junior tennis players.

A session is being offered August 2 through 18. Participants will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays within the session. Fees are $15 per session. Session times are:

- 5-7 year olds: 4-4:45 or 4:45-5:30 pm.
- 8-10 year olds: 5:30-6:30 or 6:30-7:30 pm.

Registration forms can be downloaded at www.FairhavenTennis.org or forms can be obtained from the Fairhaven Recreational Center.

For more information or if you have any questions, please call 508-280-3150.

Sippican Learning Center

Enlightening Adventures is being offered at the YMCA Sippican Learning Center at the Sippican Public School, 16 Spring St, Marion for children 2.9 to 6 years old. The Center has weekly themes to work around your vacations and your child's interest.

You don't have to sign up on a regular basis. You can sign up for a week or two or more. Hopefully this will help when the summer boredom hits or when both you and your child need a break from each other.

• August 1, Color My World – The class will be painting using various techniques, materials and applications. There will also be painting sets for our upcoming weeks.

• August 8, Amazing Adventures – The pirates will be looking for loot with a "real" ship. The class will become archeologists, go on scavenger hunts looking for buried treasure and learn a few magic tricks.

• August 15, Kings and Queens – The children will have a huge "castle" to play on, be visited by a real king, and have fun dressing up. The children will go through knight and princess training and then they will be knighted.

• August 22, Lazy, Hazy Summer Days – The children will make lemonade stands, have pretend barbeques and real picnics and delicious ice cream sundaes. This is a great way to end the summer.

Sessions cost: Five half days 8:30-12:30 – $145. Five full days (up to nine hours between 7:00 am and 5:30 pm) – $185. Register now – limited space is available. Call Sharon at 508-748-0651 or e-mail sfayette@YMCASouthcoast.org.

I Found the Aardvark!

Each week, hidden somewhere in the pages of The Wanderer is a tiny drawing of an aardvark. The little guy you are looking for looks exactly like the one pictured above (but don't put down this page as your answer, there's another one hidden somewhere in this issue).

Once you find the aardvark you can submit your answer online and if you are right you will get Aardvark Points! You can then use these points to get cool Aardvark Prizes!

Each time you find the Aardvark you will also be entered in our monthly drawing for other cool Aardvark Prizes.

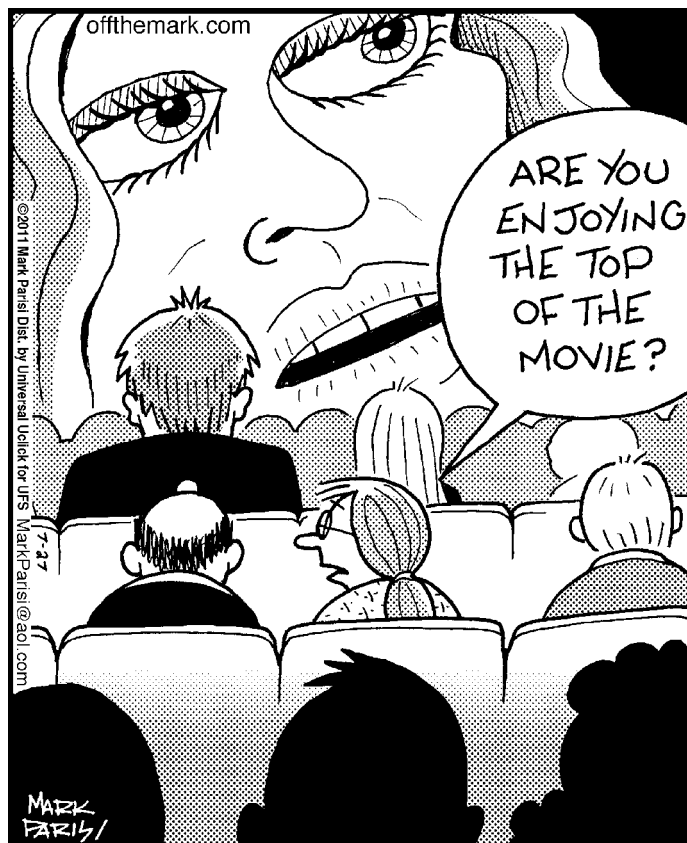

If you would like to enter the monthly drawing by mail, send your name, address and phone number along with the issue date and page number you found him in to: Wanderer - I Found the Aardvark, P.O. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739. Entries by mail will not be eligible for Aardvark Points.

To enter visit: www.wanderer.com and
